

WARRN Project Knowledge Base

WARRN (Wildlife/Animal Rescue and Reporting Network) is a full-stack rescue coordination platform connecting the public with animal responders using AI.

Core Functionality

Incident reporting with photos and GPS.
Species identification using Gemini AI.
Live video accident detection using OpenCV.
Clinical narratives generated when cases are resolved.
Real-time coordination with SocketIO and email alerts.

User Roles

Public reporters, Volunteers, NGOs, Adopters, Admin.

Tech Stack

Backend: Flask, SQLAlchemy, Flask-SocketIO.
AI: Gemini, OpenCV.
Frontend: Jinja2, JavaScript, CSS.
Automation: ReportLab, Flask-Mail.

Document Generation

Case reports and adoption applications PDFs.

Suggested FAQ for RAG

How to report an animal? How are responders notified? How does AI identify species? How do adoptions work?